

Overview

CIEE International Faculty Development Seminars (IFDS) provide faculty and administrators with access to rich academics, diverse intercultural experiences, and innovative approaches to learning and problem-solving that enhance syllabi, internationalize curricula, and increase global understanding on campus. Each summer, the CLA and the Office for Academic Affairs provide funding for two Lynn faculty to participate on the IFDS of their choice. Funding for round-trip airfare is also provided. Applications for the seminars are competitive.

Eligibility

Faculty grant applicants must meet the following eligibility requirements:

- Full-time faculty
- Chosen seminar must be relevant to the faculty's academic discipline
- Applicants cannot have received faculty development funding for the previous two summers

How to apply

Faculty grant applicants must complete the following by the application deadline:

- Select a relevant seminar from the CIEE website
<http://www.ciee.org/international-faculty-development-seminars/>
- Complete the Lynn University IFDS Grant Application (this form)

Application deadline: FEBRUARY 16, 2018

Grant applications must be submitted to the CLA by 5:00 pm on February 16, 2018. Grant applications may be submitted in person or via email (cla@lynn.edu). The CLA is located in the Lynn Student Center (outside the Dining Commons). Late and/or incomplete applications will not be considered.
