J-term 2019

DOMINICAN REPUBLIC - Santiago: Citizenship Project + Spanish Language and Culture

Through this Citizenship Project and Spanish Language program, you can discover the keys to effectively serving others. Learn the value of gaining community awareness for the area you hope to serve, including its culture, language, needs, available resources and the challenges it faces. Explore the foundational theories of community service while immersing yourself in the Dominican culture through language classes, cultural activities, excursions and workshops. Build relationships with community members and organizations based on commitment, participation and trust while engaging in community-based projects.
