SAM 680: Beginning Internship in Sports and Athletics Administration - Winter X Games Experience

ESPN Winter X Games

The Winter X Games is a competition compiled of the greatest winter action sport athletes from around the world competing on an annual basis. The competition has day and evening events including skiing, snowboarding and snowmobiling. Nowhere in the action sports stratosphere does the possibility needle move forward more often than at the X Games. One week, human beings can do this; the next, after the X Games have concluded, a whole new dimension exists.

Why Go?

During the 10-day internship, students will work anywhere between 7 to 15 hours daily while completing coursework through online platforms. Not for the faint of heart, the Winter X Games Experience tests the limits of Lynn students academically, physically and professionally while providing an unrivaled internship opportunity.
